

Which way? Your pathway.

Access information to support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students and school leavers to enter the workforce.

For students, parents and education staff

Which way? Your pathway. has information for schools, and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students, school leavers and parents.

- Career exploration: career and industry information for students to find their pathway.
- Work readiness: resources to help students prepare to enter the workforce.
- Employment support: organisations that support students to enter the workforce.
- Calendar: upcoming events to help students find their career pathway.

For employers

Which way? Your pathway. has information to assist employers in recruitment and engagement of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander young people.

- Student locations and contacts: information on where Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students are located at schools across Queensland, and how to best get in touch with them to target recruitment strategies.
- Employer strategies: resources and programs to support the recruitment and retention of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander young people in the workforce.
- Cultural awareness: resources to increase cultural awareness in the workplace.

For more information go to www.indigenousportal.eq.edu.au/employment

